

Personal season route tickets [1]

Thu, 19/07/2018 - 21:37

Personal season route tickets are issued for travelling by KM trains for routes up to 200 km. A season ticket entitled to the unlimited travelling between all the stations of a particular route, including the shortest route or presented in the ticket. A ticket is valid from the date of issue or the date determined by the passenger with reserving the 7-day advance sale.

A route ticket can be one-way or return. Before using a ticket the ticket owner is obligated to clearly and durably fill in a ticket by putting the full name as well as the ID card number in the proper place. It is particularly important because a ticket is valid only with an ID card.

Moreover, without the data clearly filled in a ticket is not valid. Only a person whose data are included is entitled to travel on the basis of a route ticket.

Laminating a ticket or extending a validity is not permitted. For lost, damaged, laminated or stolen tickets the carrier does not give a refund or a duplicate, also in case of reporting the loss to the police.

Personal route tickets can be purchased according to the regular tariff, with the following concession fares: 33%, 35%, 37%, 49%, 50%, 51%, 78%, 93%.

Kinds of personal route tickets:

- 1) weekly;
- 2) two-week;
- 3) monthly;
- 4) quarterly.

The validity of a reduced-fare personal quarterly ticket cannot be longer than the validity of a document certifying the right to a concession fare.

Personal season route tickets can be purchased only in electronic way at the ticket desks and the ticket vending machines (apart from quarterly tickets).
